

POWDER BURNS, LOCKJAW, DEATH.

Daniel J. Jacobs Finally Succumb
To Injuries Received on July Fourth.

HEROIC STRUGGLE FOR LIFE.

Anti-Toxin Serum Used in Vain—
Doctor Believes It Was Applied Too
Late—A Sad Case.

The most serious result following from the recent Fourth of July celebration in Salt Lake City happened yesterday noon, when Daniel J. Jacobs died from lockjaw. Mr. Jacobs resided at Twelfth South and Twelfth East streets, where he kept a small grocery store. On the Fourth of July he received a slight powder burn, but thought little of it as it quickly healed over, but on July 5th a slight stiffness of the neck muscles made themselves manifest, and on the 11th the situation was so serious that he sought the advice of Dr. Chas. W. Stewart. He stated his complaint upon calling as a cold in the lungs, but Dr. Stewart quickly decided that it was lockjaw after learning of the powder burn. Until the discovery of lockjaw anti-toxin serum the affliction has been one of the most dreaded. It has claimed its sufferers after short intervals of the most agony in which spasms and contractions of the muscles have served to greatly distort the body. The serum has been successful when applied early enough to fight the disease, but in this case the trouble had already spread over the body before the serum was first applied, and the spasms were beginning in the face muscles.

Heroic treatment was applied from the first, but with little hope of saving the patient's life. Anti-toxin was applied regularly in large quantities, while powerful drugs were administered to relieve the patient from the muscle contractions which were about to set in. Friday was the day under normal conditions when death should have come. On that day and on Saturday, however, Mr. Jacobs seemed to hold his own, and Dr. Stewart began to have hopes for his recovery. Sunday morning, however, he rapidly weakened and at noon sank from unconsciousness. He died at 10 o'clock, after a struggle of two days, two conditions which science had been able to win in his fight with the disease.

Daniel J. Jacobs was in his fortieth year, and had resided in Sugar Ward for many years. He was married and is survived by a wife and three children. The body was removed yesterday afternoon to the undertaking parlors of Elder Hall, from which the funeral will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

In discussing the case, Dr. Stewart states that he attributes the failure of his patient to survive to the lateness with which the serum was taken in hand. It had been seriously affecting the patient 30 hours or more before he visited the physician.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer, who has been in Hollywood, writes, Oct. 27th, 1903: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend this Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises, rheumatism, etc. etc. $1.00 bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept."

LIQUOR AT RESORTS.

Bale of Intoxicants to Minors Must Cease at Once.

The sale of liquor to boys and girls at the various resorts in this county must stop. Sheriff Emery and Assistant County Attorney Hanson have taken the matter up and the latter has written a letter to the former stating that, if it is necessary to close the resorts in order to stop the practice, to close them. Sheriff Emery has already given warning to the proprietor of one of the resort bars that unless he puts a stop to the sale of liquor to minors he will have to close up. He also informed the proprietor that a certain bartender in his employ had been warned not to sell to minors, but had done so and hence the fellow would not be allowed to tend bar there any more.

The letter from Asst. County Atty. Hanson to the proprietor follows:

Frequent reports have come to this office of the violation of the law permitting the sale of liquors to minors at the different resorts in the county. In some instances it is reported that even young girls have been furnished with liquor. The law is very plain on this subject and such gross violation of it should not for a moment be tolerated. Whenever and wherever any intoxicating liquor is sold to minors the guilty party or parties should at once be arrested and prosecuted. If it is necessary to close the resorts in order to enforce the law, close them, but see that the law is enforced.

Indigestion.

With its companion, heart burn, flatulence, etc., indigestion is a common complaint, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, yellow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. See bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Laid to Rest.

Friends Do Honor to the Memory of a Pioneer Woman.

Glowing tribute to the memory of a Pioneer was paid yesterday afternoon to Mrs. Susan Mosley Sperry, wife of Bishop Harrison Sperry of the Fourth ward, whose remains were tenderly consigned to mother earth, after impressive services in the ward assembly rooms. The hall was packed with sympathizing relatives and friends, while the casket, in which reposed the remains of the dead woman, was buried under a wealth of beautiful floral offerings, there being also many set pieces sent in by former associates of the deceased. The stand, too, was tastefully decorated, and a beautiful spirit pervaded the assemblage throughout the service.

Counselor M. P. Madsen presided and touching music was rendered by the ward choir. The service was held at 2 o'clock. The opening prayer was offered by Counselor George M. Birdwell and the speakers in their order were: Elder Thomas Jenkins, William Edgington, President William McLachlan, Bishop H. S. Cutler of the Thirtieth ward, David McKenize, Bishop S. M. T. Redden of the Fifth ward, Bishop George H. Taylor of the Fourteenth ward, Bishop Heber C. Iverson of the Second ward, Charles Sperry, brother of Bishop Sperry, and Counselor M. P. Madsen. All referred to the integrity of Sister Sperry, to her unwavering devotion to the cause of truth, to her work as a Pioneer, and to her labors among the poor.

She was a woman of God's kingdom and her children could well follow the example set them. As a closing selection the choir rendered "O My Father," and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Charles Cottrell. Interment was in the city cemetery.

Croup.

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes, and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. Always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment to the throat. See bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

The lingering flavor of Golden Gate Ceylon Tea delights and refreshes the entire system. It's a new pleasure.

AT THE RESORTS.

The Women of Woodcraft will have an outing at Logoon next Friday, with the usual program of entertainment.

Wednesday at Calder's Park is to be Granite stake day, and for the occasion an elaborate program of sports has been prepared. It is designed a "field day," and will be thoroughly an out of doors celebration. Horse races are advertised to occur in the afternoon, in addition to dancing, boating and athletic contests in the afternoon and evening.

Tuesday is the day the children will remember. It will be their day at Salt Lake, and on that occasion about 300 little tots will be guests of the street railway and Salt Lake beach companies. They will come from the orphanages and the choir of St. Ann's cathedral and will go to the lake at 10 o'clock in the morning to spend the entire day. Lunch and dinner will be served at the resort.

Today the Eagles perch at Salt Lake, and the outflow of the big winged orator from many a corner of Utah is expected to be large this afternoon and evening. The Oregon aeris migrates south with a brass band at its head, while Salt Lake aeris No. 67 alighted at the principal streets with feathers fluttering on parade. Many lone birds floated in from distant parts this morning to join the hosts at the lake, and altogether the day gives promise of being one of the best in the season.

The people of Granite stake will have their annual field day at Calder's on Wednesday next. In addition to a big athletic contest consisting of putting the shot, hammer throw, pole vault, broad jump and a number of foot races there will be fine horse races in the afternoon, for which handsome purses have been provided. Among the horses listed are Joe McGregor, owned by C. H. Thompson; June Wilkes, owned by McMillan; Angus Duray, owned by Dr. Hummelbaugh; Lurline, Argot, Honest John, Commodore, Saily, Sleepy Tom and others equally well known. There will also be a country race for a purse of $25, with free entrance. The athletic program will begin at 11 a. m., while the horse races are scheduled for 2 p. m.

UNKNOWN BRUTE ASSAULTS CHILD.

Six-Year-old Daughter of Ernest Mason Attacked by a Fiend In Human Form.

LAS VEGAS BOY GIVES CHASE.

All but Had Him When He Boarded a Rio Grande Freight Train and Escaped.

A dastardly outrage was committed by a burly brute at the north side of the city and county building about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon upon the six-year-old daughter of Ernest Mason, 352 south State street.

As near as the facts can be gleaned, the little girl and her three-year-old sister, were walking through the grounds when they were approached by a stranger who coerced them to the north side of the building by giving them some candy. There the wretch committed the crime.

Mrs. Mason missed the children and started to look for them. As she approached the place where the brute had taken them, the little girl cried out to her mother.

Albert D. Blake, a 17-year-old lad from Las Vegas, happened to be passing at the time and to him Mrs. Mason called and asked him to follow the man until she notified the police. When Mrs. Mason put in an appearance the man took to his heels. Looking for a second, young Blake followed the fellow. The latter ran through lots, jumped fences, retraced his steps and tried in every way to shake off young Blake, but the latter stuck to the trail until the Portland Cement works were reached. Here Blake met George Palmer and asked him to telephone for the police. Palmer did so and Blake continued the chase.

BOARDED A TRAIN.

The scoundrel would almost surely have been captured there but a freight train came along and the man climbed aboard. So did Blake. He was determined not to lose sight of the fellow. Suddenly the man drew a revolver, and pointing it at Blake's head, said: "Get off of here or I'll blow your head off."

Blake was forced to drop from the train. He returned to the cement works where he found Sergeant Roberts and Detectives Shannon and Raleigh. Telegrams were quickly sent down the line to Murray and Bingham Junction, notifying the officers and asking that the man be stopped. Deputy sheriffs at Murray, assisted by citizens armed with guns and revolvers, took up the chase. Word was received to the effect that the man had jumped from the train and had started back to Salt Lake.

MAN'S DESCRIPTION.

Officers from the police and sheriffs are still working on the case, and they hope to capture the man, as they believe nearly every avenue of escape is shut off. Blake gave a good description of the fellow. The man is described as being about 40 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches in height, weighing at least 200 pounds, light complexioned and wearing a dark worn suit and a stiff straw hat. Blake says the fellow is either smooth shaven or wears a very light mustache.

PLACE FOR DR. JONES.

Former Secretary to Senator Kearns Made Consul at Dally, Manchuria.

Dr. John E. Jones, former secretary to Senator Thomas Kearns, has been appointed by President Roosevelt United States consul to Dally, Manchuria, now in the hands of the Japanese. This is construed to mean that when the war between Russia and Japan is settled, Dr. Jones will become consul general at Port Arthur.

The appointee is 28 years of age and has had much experience as a newspaper correspondent at Washington, D. C. His father was John W. Jones of Delaware, C. while his mother was a descendant of Gen. John Holland Williams of Revolutionary fame and of the Lees of Virginia. He began his school career early in the public schools of the city and won four medals for proficiency in studies. He was prepared for college at Prof. Hunt's private high school and finished his education at Georgetown University, acquiring himself there creditably as in the public schools. Dr. Jones studied both law and medicine, graduating from George Washington university as a doctor of medicine.

He interested himself in district politics for some time, and in 1902 was elected one of the delegates to the Republican national convention at Philadelphia, where he voted both for McKinley for president and Roosevelt for vice-president. He served on some of the important committees of the convention, among them that which notified Mr. Roosevelt of his nomination as vice-president. During the campaign of 1902 Dr. Jones served as an assistant secretary of the Republican National Committee at Chicago, attending the attention of Senator Mark Hanna and Henry C. Payne, who both paid tribute to his good work.

Dr. Jones will probably leave for his post about the last of August, sailing with his wife and two children. He was married in 1902 to Miss Hilda Tysowski of Washington.

When Coffee Shows What It Has Been Doing.

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a mother from Rome, N. Y. "The lightest punishment was to make me 'jag' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood."

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit and try Postum Food Coffee."

"It went right to the spot! I found it not only most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well."

"All my ailments—dizziness and diarrhoea, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to eat and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am rejoicing in sound health, which I owe to the use of Postum Food Coffee."

RUSSIAN CENTER ATTACKED.

Resistance Was Stubborn but Useless.

Tokio, July 16.—It is officially announced that the Russian center holding Dalnie and vicinity was attacked July 11, and offered stubborn resistance. The attack was renewed at dawn of July 12, when the Japanese dislodged the Russians, driving them in the direction of Manku. This victory insures complete occupation of South Sakhalin by the Japanese.

Eighty prisoners were taken by the Japanese, among whom was Lieut. Maximia. Four field pieces, one machine gun and ammunition warehouses were captured. The Japanese loss was about 10 men killed or wounded. The Russians lost 150 men.
